

CONFERENCE OF RADIATION CONTROL PROGRAM DIRECTORS, INC.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS RESOLUTION

- WHEREAS: Public Law 104-113 (March 7, 1996) established the National Technology Transfer and Advancement Act of 1995, which specifies requirements for the utilization of consensus technical standards, and
- WHEREAS: Office of Management of Budget Circular establishes policies on use of voluntary consensus standards, and
- WHEREAS: OMB Circular A-119 defines "voluntary consensus standards bodies" as domestic or international organizations which plan, develop, establish, or coordinate voluntary consensus standards using agreed-upon procedures, and
- WHEREAS: OMB Circular A-119 defines "voluntary consensus standards" as standards developed or adopted by voluntary consensus standards bodies, both domestic and international, and
- WHEREAS: CRCPD is a domestic organization that develops and coordinates voluntary consensus standards using agreed-upon procedures, and
- WHEREAS: These voluntary consensus standards are the Suggested State Regulations for Control of Radiation (SSRCRs) and other standards, which are developed using a consensus procedure adopted by the CRCPD Board of Directors, and
- WHEREAS: The consensus procedure used in the development of the SSRCRs incorporates stakeholder input from partner agencies, professions, industry, and the public, and
- WHEREAS: CRCPD is recognized by the International Atomic Energy Agency as a non-governmental organization, and
- WHEREAS: The CRCPD SSRCRs are used by the state radiation control programs as model regulations for the development of individual states regulations, and
- WHEREAS: The CRCPD SSRCRs include consensus standards for possession and use of radioactive material, machine-produced radiation and nonionizing radiation.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

CRCPD is a voluntary consensus standards body under Public Law 104-113.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

The SSRCRs and other products adopted by the CRCPD Board of Directors are voluntary consensus standards under Public Law 104-113.

Approved by the CRCPD Board of Directors April 27, 2005.
