Current Announcement

RADIOLOGICAL HEALTH DIRECTOR - 20625

Salary: $74,296.80 - $125,304.00

Announcement Date: November 26, 2025

Application Deadline: December 24, 2025

JOB INFORMATION

The Radiological Health Director is a permanent full-time position with the Alabama Department of Public Health. The position is located in Montgomery. This is advanced professional administrative work in the field of radiation control. The employee in this class directs and oversees the activities of the state's comprehensive radiation control program. Work involves planning, coordinating, and directing a staff of professional supervisory personnel engaged in the various aspects of the program. Consultative and advisory services are rendered to medical and research personnel of public and private agencies.

MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS

- Current, permanent status as a Radiation Physicist Supervisor (20623) or Radiological Health Assistant Director (20624) (for the promotional register only).
- Bachelor's degree from an accredited* four-year college or university with major coursework in math, physics, chemistry, engineering, biology, or physical science.
- Seven (7) years of experience in a radiological health or health physics public health program including three (3) years at the level of a Radiation Physicist Supervisor or Radiological Health Assistant Director.

NOTES

- Applicants MUST describe supervisory and/or administrative job duties in detail.
- The Department of Public Health will verify possession of the degree prior to employment.

EXAMINATION

- Open-Competitive to all applicants and Promotional to current state employees in the job classification listed above.
- An Evaluation of Training and Experience as shown on application will comprise 100% of the final score for the open-competitive register. The training and experience evaluation will compromise 95% of the applicant's final score for the promotional register, with the remaining 5% being based on the average of the applicant's service ratings for the last three years.

HOW TO APPLY

- Complete an Application for Examination Form available at www.personnel.alabama.gov, the above address, or any Alabama Career Center Office.
- Apply on-line, by mail, by fax, or by email at apply@personnel.alabama.gov. Application must be received by 5:00 p.m. on the application deadline date shown above. The State Personnel Department is not responsible for late receipt of applications due to mail service or faxing malfunctions.

*Individuals currently on the register MUST reapply to remain eligible for employment.
Veteran's credits are NOT allowed on promotional examinations.*

THE STATE OF ALABAMA IS AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER

*Please refer to the back of this announcement for complete information on State Personnel's policy for accepting post-secondary and advanced degrees.

Except for pretest information provided by State Personnel to all applicants, you should not directly or indirectly obtain information about examinations. If you do, the State Personnel Director may do several things. One, you may not be given an examination. Two, you may be disqualified after an examination. Three, your name may be removed from a register. Or four, your name may not be certified from the register. (Rules of the State Personnel Board, Chapter 670-x-9). According to the Code of Alabama, 36-26-47, a willful violation of exam security is a misdemeanor. Any person who is convicted of this type of misdemeanor will be ineligible for appointment to or employment in a position in State service for a period of five years and, if the person is an officer or employee of the State, will forfeit his or her office or position.

If you know of anyone who has violated this policy, you should contact the Examination Manager at the State Personnel Department.

Applicants hired by the State of Alabama on or after January 1, 2012, will be subject to the E-Verify process pursuant to Act No. 2011-535.

Policy on Accepting College Coursework, Post-Secondary and Advanced Degrees

1. Specific college coursework required for a job classification, as well as bachelor's, graduate, postgraduate, and doctoral degrees will be accepted from schools accredited by the Distance Education Accrediting Commission (DEAC) or any of the six regional accreditation associations in the United States listed below:

- Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS)
- Middle States Commission on Higher Education (MSCHE)
- Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities (NWCCU)
- Higher Learning Commission (HLC)
- New England Commission of Higher Education (NECHE)
- Western Association of Schools and Colleges –Senior College and University Commission (WASC-SCUC)

College coursework is defined as credit hours leading to a bachelor's degree or higher.

2. Coursework or degrees from schools that have not been accredited by one of the above accreditation associations may be accepted if a regionally accredited school* considers the coursework or degree to be an acceptable prerequisite for admission to an advanced degree program. For example, if a regionally accredited school accepts an applicant's bachelor's degree for admittance into a graduate degree program, State Personnel will accept the degree. In the case of required college coursework (but no degree requirement), State Personnel will accept the college coursework if a regionally accredited school accepts the coursework towards a post-secondary degree (e.g., a bachelor's degree). This must be documented by a letter of acceptance from the regionally accredited school. State Personnel will review such requests on a case-by-case basis.

Note: This policy is subject to change. Certain state agencies may have additional requirements.

*The term "regionally accredited school" refers to an institution of higher education accredited by one of the six regional accreditation associations listed above.
